- Seventeen MKs from eight Asian countries share the challenges and blessings of being MKs and Third Culture Kids (TCKs)
- Testimonies of MK caregivers from seven Asian countries on the development and challenges of the MK Care ministry
- Endorsed by many global Christian & mission leaders

"As MKs come together to encourage and assist one another in discovering their identity in Christ, I believe this will release the full potential that will be unleashed with a force and creativity that will, in some ways, surpass the missional strategies and effectiveness of the parents' generation."

-- Momin Kim, Korean MK

"A ground breaking book indeed! Through poignant personal stories, we see the growing cultural complexity many children face in sorting out personal and cultural identity in today's globalizing world. And we also see hope for the strength that can come in the end. Don't miss it!"

--Ruth E. Van Reken, Co-author of Third Culture Kids: Growing Up Among Worlds
